

GO... AWAY

SUMMER WENT—YOU DIDN'T. SO CONSIDER THESE FOUR-STAR "BEST STOPS" JUST DESSERT FOR SLAVING THROUGH THAT INTERNSHIP OR THREE-MONTH-LONG DEADLINE.

An African Gem

PEACEFUL, UNCROWDED BOTSWANA ABOUNDS WITH RUSTIC COMFORTS AND PULSE-QUICKENING WILDLIFE THRILLS.

BY KATHARINE HARRINGTON PHOTOGRAPHERS BY SAMIRA CRITTELL AND HENRY BALUNDECHAKI

SCENARIOS FROM LEFT: THE OKAVANGO DELTA, BEAR DENIA, WITH THE 2008 AFRICAN WILDLIFE FOUNDATION AND THE 100% AFRICAN ACCO (AFRICAN ACCO) COURTESY OF THE 100% AFRICAN ACCO COURTESY OF THE 100% AFRICAN ACCO

Crossing from Zimbabwe into Botswana at the border post on Katungula Road, you're likely to notice a couple of things. First, there is the Botswana customs building: a modern low-slung bungalow, spotless by local standards, and, unlike its dingy counterpart on the Zimbabwean side, air-conditioned and largely devoid of